

I Look for My Krishna

wait

► verb (wait, waiting, past waited)

1. To stay in a place until someone comes, e.g. I waited for him for one hour; We are waiting for the bus; Wait for me here.
2. To not act until something happens, e.g. Wait your turn to see the doctor.

bait

► noun

- Food used to catch animals like mice, fish etc.

e.g. You need to put some bait in the mousetrap.

hail

► noun

1. Frozen drops of rain, e.g. Look at the hail outside! Did you get caught in the hail last night?

► verb (hail, hailing, past hailed)

1. The falling of frozen rain, e.g. Its hailing, don't go outside.
2. To draw attention to, e.g. He put his arm out to hail the bus; They hailed him as an hero.

sail

► verb (sail, sailing, past sailed)

- To travel in a boat or a ship, e.g. He is sailing on the river; We are going sailing on Saturday; The British sailed across the ocean from England to India.

► noun

- Plastic covered cloth used to catch the wind and move a ship or a boat forward, e.g. The sailing ship above has six sails; The sailing boat on the river has one sail; The sails of a sailing boat catch the wind and make the boat go forward.

tail

► noun

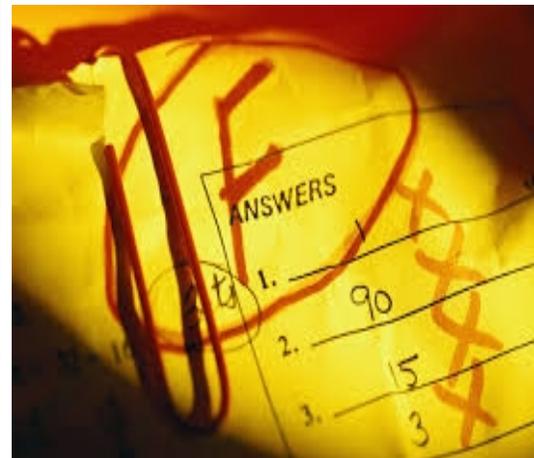

1. A long, movable part at the back of a bird, fish or animal, e.g. Cows use their tails to remove flies; The cat was wagging its tail.
2. Something like a tail, e.g. Our seat was in the tail of the airplane; She has nice pigtails; I wear my hair in a ponytail.

fail

► verb (fail, failing, past failed)

- To be unsuccessful, e.g. He failed the exam; I fail to understand why it cannot be done on time.

mail

► noun

1. Articles sent by post, e.g. The mail is delivered here every day. I received my mail just now.
3. Email, e.g. Check your mail, you should have 2 emails from me.

► verb (mail, mailing, past mailed)

- To send something by post, e.g. Can you mail this letter for me?

nail

► noun

1. A hard substance that grows at the end of a finger or toe, e.g. Humans have ten fingernails and ten toenails; My finger nail broke.

2. Something that is used to hang or fasten things, e.g. Please put a nail in the wall to hang this photo; Can you see the nails in this table?

rail

► noun

- 1) The track that a train moves on (also called railway track or railway line), e.g. The train came off the rail and crashed.
- 2) Train travel, e.g. We are going by rail.
- 3) The boundary of a veranda or at the side of stairs to keep people from falling over (also called 'railing'). e.g. Hold onto the rail when walking down the stairs.

Gail

► proper noun

- A woman's name

pain

► noun

- Suffering of the body or mind, e.g. His mother's death caused him a lot of pain; When I broke my arm, the pain was intense; Please don't talk to me right now, I am in pain.

main

► adjective

- The most important; the biggest, e.g. The picture shows a main road and a side road; The main idea of the story is that honesty is rewarded; The main thing you need to do is study; He is the main person in charge of the company.

rain

► noun

- Drops of water from clouds, e.g. They were dancing in the rain.

► verb (rain, raining, past rained)

- Drops of water coming down, e.g. It was raining on Saturday; Don't go outside, it is raining; Why does it always rain on my birthday? We would have gone if it hadn't rained.

aim

► noun

1. Pointing and hitting what was intended, e.g. His aim is not good, he always misses the goal when he kicks the ball.
2. Something you want to achieve; a goal, e.g. My aim is to become famous; My aim is to learn English.

www.shutterstock.com · 88932658

► verb (aim, aiming, past aimed)

1. To point or throw at somebody/something, e.g. She is aiming at the target.
2. To try to achieve something, e.g. I am aiming at becoming the best in my class.

paid (past tense of 'pay')

► verb (pay, paying, past paid)

- To give someone money for his goods, work done etc, e.g. Please pay the bill; Have you paid your school fees?

maid

► noun

- A female cleaner, e.g. We have a maid who comes every morning to sweep the floor and wash the dishes.

too

▶ adverb/intensifier

- Also, as well, e.g. She goes to school and I go too; Sita sat at the back and her mom sat at the back too. (note: too is not used after a negative; either is used instead, e.g. Sita did not go to the temple and I did not go either)
- Overly, e.g. The bag is too heavy, I cannot carry it; The bag is too full, I need to take some buds out.

zoo

▶ noun

- A park where different kinds of animals are kept, e.g. We are going for a trip to the zoo to see the giraffes and elephants too.

moon

▶ noun

- A small body that moves around the earth, e.g. The moon only comes out at night; Can you see the moon? Tonight is a full moon.

noon

▶ noun

- 12 o'clock midday, e.g. We will eat lunch at noon.

soon

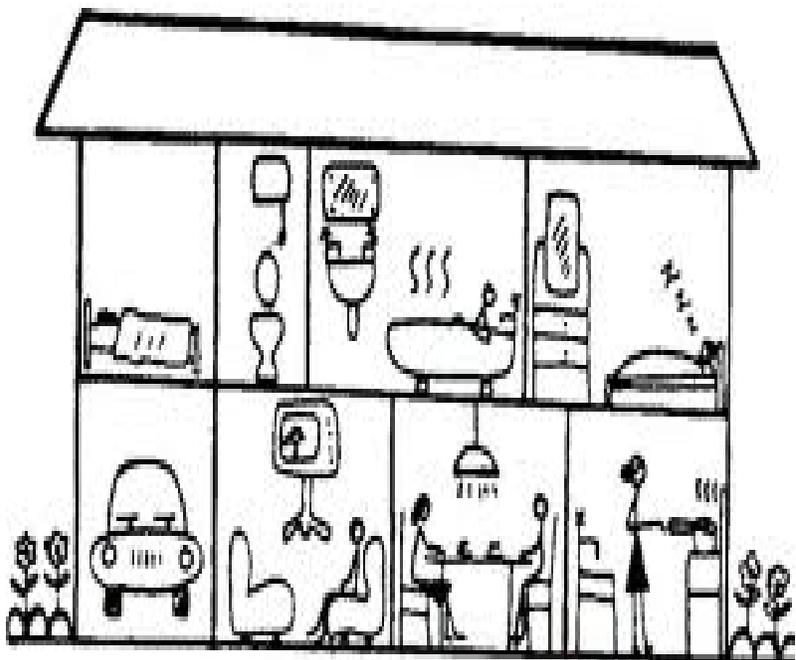

▶ adverb

- In a short time, quickly, e.g. I will be there soon; He left soon after lunch; He came too soon, I wasn't ready; I am tired of waiting, I hope the bus comes soon.

room

▶ noun

- A part of a building divided from another part by walls, e.g. Please come to my room; This is my dining room, my living room, my t.v room, my bedroom etc.
- Space for someone-something, e.g. Do you have room in the car for one more person? I have no room in my bag for more books.

zoom

► verb (zoom, zooming, past zoomed)

1. (for a camera) To move quickly to a close up view, e.g. Zoom in on his face.
2. The sound made by moving quickly, e.g. The cars were zooming around the race track; The fly kept zooming around the room.

cool

► adjective

1. Lack of tension, e.g. Krishna remained cool when the Vatsasur demon attacked him.
2. Fashionable; attractive, e.g. He always wears cool clothes.
3. Between warm and cold, e.g. Would you like a cool drink? It is getting a little cool outside, maybe I should take my sweater.

tool

► noun

- An instrument used for making something, such as a hammer, axe, etc, e.g. Can you pass me my tools; Which tools do you need to fix a cycle? A pencil is a tool used for writing and drawing.

boot

► noun

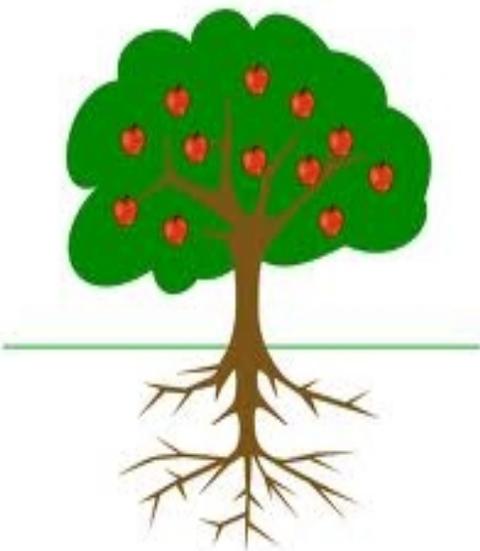

- A type of shoe that covers the foot and ankle, e.g. Put on your hiking boots, we are going for a walk in the jungle.

root

► noun

- The part of a plant that is under the ground, e.g. Plants drink water through their roots; Pull the weeds out by their roots, otherwise they will sprout up again.

food

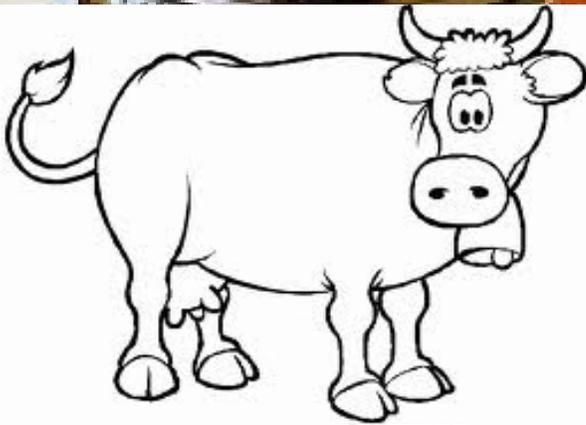

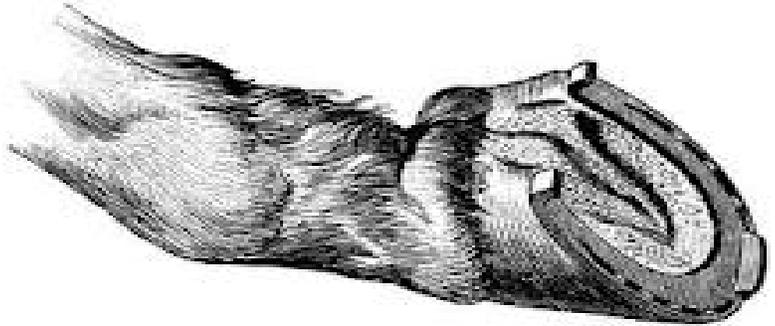

► noun

- Things eaten by humans, animals or plants
e.g. We don't have any food in the house; Mice are the favorite food of cats; What is your favorite food?

hoof

► noun (plural 'hooves')

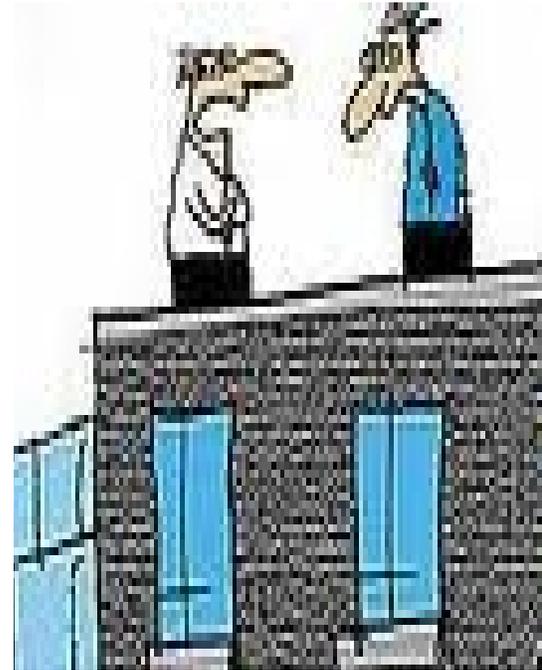

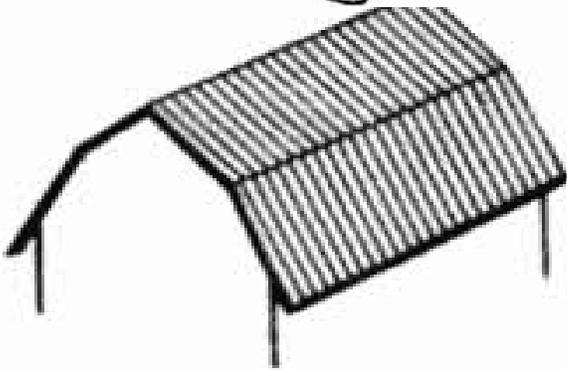

- The hard part of the foot of a cow, horse, sheep etc, e.g. The vet lifted up the cow's hoof to check for diseases; The sheep's hooves made marks in the wet ground.

roof

► noun

- The top covering of a building, car, etc, e.g. We were sitting on the roof of the building; There are leaves on the roof; The monkey was sitting on the roof of the car; I have an itch on the roof of my mouth.

rooftop

► noun

- The top of a building, e.g. We were sitting on the rooftop;

► adjective

- On the roof, e.g. The apartment has a rooftop garden; There is a rooftop restaurant on top of the office building.

book

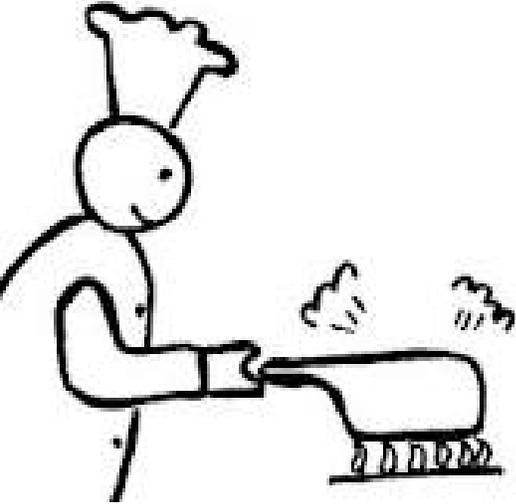

► noun

• Some information or a story that is presented together on many sheets of paper fastened together, e.g. These are my school books; I need a book on Indian History; Books can be either fiction or non-fiction.

► verb (book, booking, past booked)

• To reserve or buy tickets for a film, play, journey etc. before the time of the occasion, e.g. Did you book our train tickets? He booked the ticket for the concert one month ago.

cook

► verb (cook, cooking, past cooked)

1. To prepare food by using heat, e.g. I can cook rice very well; Do you know how to cook pasta? Please cook the potatoes; I am cooking dinner now.

2. In the process of being prepared, e.g. The dinner is cooking; Lets go to the kitchen and see what's cooking.

took (past tense of 'take')

► verb (take, taking, past took, past part taken)

1. To get or have, e.g. I took a trip to London.
2. To go by, e.g. I took a boat to Mathura; I took a train to the city.
3. To swallow, e.g. I took a tablet.
4. To steal, e.g. Someone took my coat.
5. To carry or move, e.g. I took my car to the mechanic; She took me to school.
6. To be necessary or needed, e.g. This work took a long time to finish.

hook

► noun

1. A piece of curved metal or other hard material for catching hold of things or hanging things on, e.g. Please put your jacket on the hook; The bag is hanging on the clothes hook; The fish was caught on the fish hook.

► adjective

2. To be bent into a curved shape, e.g. He has a hooked nose.

look

► Verb (look, looking, past looked)

1. To try to see, e.g. Look at this! Look out of the window, it is raining.
2. To appear, e.g. The cake looked better than it tasted; She looked good in her new dress.

► noun

- The act of looking, e.g. He took a look at the picture; Have a look at this!

looking

► verb (present participle of 'look')

- e.g. He was looking at me; Stop looking at me! He kept looking at me; What are you looking at?

► noun

1. Appearing, e.g. He is a good looking boy; That is a funny looking hat.

good

► adjective (good, better, best)

1. Pleasant, happy, nice, well, e.g. Good morning! Have a good time! How are you? I am good.
2. Having the required qualities; of a high standard, e.g. He is good at dancing; I am good at soccer.
3. Moral; not naughty, e.g. Children, be good! He is a good man.

► noun

1. Benefit or advantage, e.g. Homework is for your own good; He is working for the greater good; He is working for the good of mankind.

wood

► collective noun (does not take 's')

- The substance that trees are made of, e.g. Please put some wood on the fire; Please put another piece of wood on the fire.

woods noun

- Jungle; a small forest, e.g. He went for a walk in the woods.

hood

► noun

1. A part of some jackets used to cover the head, e.g. Please pass me my jacket, the one with the hood; If you are cold, put on your hood.

foot

► noun (plural 'feet')

1. The part of the body at the end of the leg, e.g. An ant bit my foot; Put your right foot forward.
2. A measurement, e.g. This table is two feet long wool

► noun

- The hair of sheep, goats that can be made into clothing or threads, e.g. My sweater is made of wool; This sheep has lovely wool.

bar

► noun

1. A rod or stick made of metal, e.g. The window has bars on it.
2. A room where alcoholic drinks are sold, e.g. He went to the bar with his friends.

► verb (bar, barring, past barred)

1. To make safe by putting safety bars, e.g. He barred the windows of the house.
2. To prevent somebody from going in a certain place, e.g. You are barred from coming to this school.

car

► noun

- A type of vehicle, e.g. Please park the car in the carpark; Do you have a car? What kind of car is that?

far

► adverb

- Distant, e.g. I live far from here; He is far from the solution to his problem.

► adjective

- Very much, e.g. He is a far better dancer than his brother.

jar

► noun

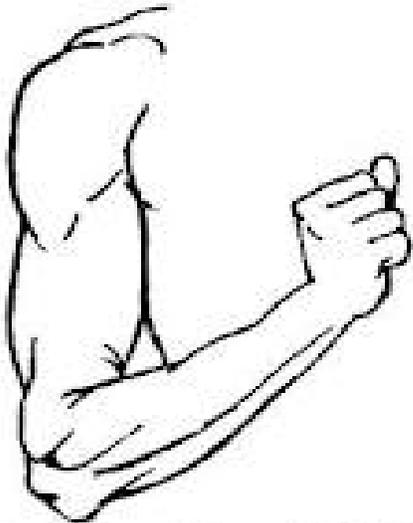

- A type of container usually made of glass or plastic that is often used for keeping food e.g. There were three jars of toffees at the shop.

pardon

► verb (pardon, pardoning, past pardoned)

1. Sorry, excuse me, e.g. Pardon me for interrupting.
2. Freed from punishment or prison, e.g. On Independence day, all political prisoners were pardoned.

arm

► noun

- The part of the body extending from the shoulder, e.g. Move your arms in a circular motion

► verb (arm, arming, past armed)

- To get or supply weapons for fighting, e.g. These soldiers are armed with machine guns.

harm

► noun

- Injury, damage, e.g. The storm caused a lot of harm; Smoking will harm your health.

farm

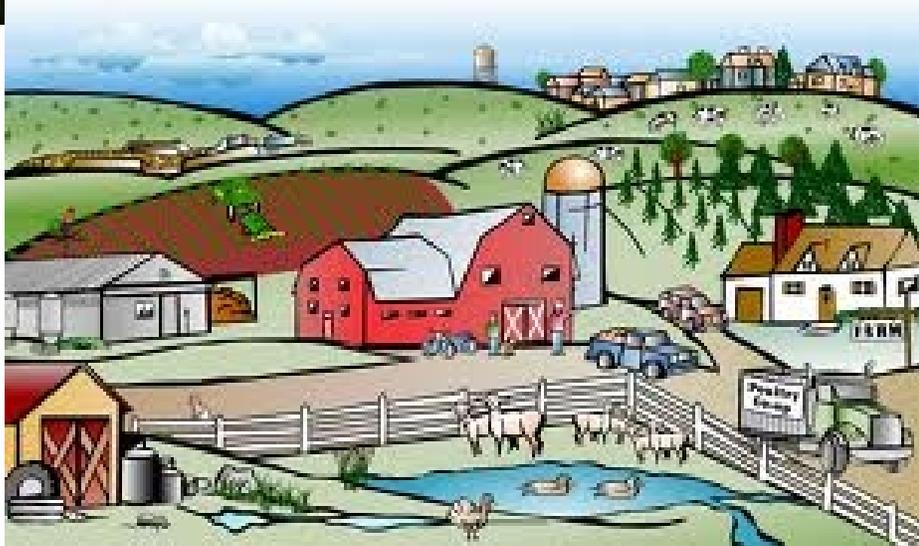

► noun

- A large area of land to grow crops and raise animals, e.g. We have a mango farm; We live on a farm.

farmyard

► noun

- The ground near the animal shed which has a boundary around it to keep the animals in, e.g. Open the cow shed and let the cows graze in the farmyard.

yarn

► noun

1. A thick thread like wool, e.g. Tie the bags up with yarn.

barn

► noun

- Shed; a building on a farm used for storing crops or for sheltering animals, e.g. Please lock the cows in the barn.

art

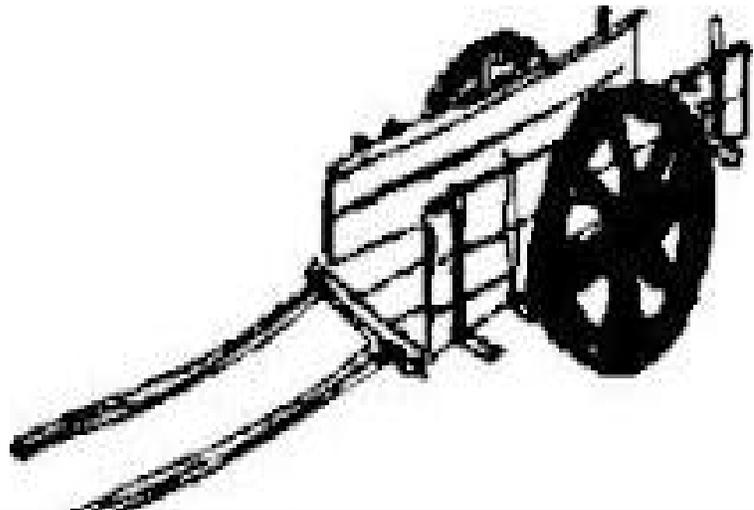

► noun

1. Objects made to look beautiful, e.g. Look at the art on the walls; He is good at art; Art is my favorite subject at school.

cart

► noun

• A vehicle pulled by an animal and used for carrying goods, or people, e.g. The bull was pulling the cart; Before cars, people traveled by horse-and-cart.

part

► noun

1. The line in hair formed by a comb, e.g. This part is not straight.
2. Something smaller than the whole, e.g. I like the beginning part of the movie but not the end.
3. Piece into something is divided, e.g. Please break this bread into three parts.
4. A role in a dramatic production, e.g. In the drama he will play the part of Krishna.

► verb (part, parting, past parted) To make a straight line in hair with a comb, e.g. Please part my hair in the middle. To separate or leave, e.g. To part with your family is very difficult.

card

► noun

1. A small piece of thick, stiff paper for writing on, especially a postcard, greeting card, business card or visiting card, e.g. This is a birthday card for you.

2. Playing cards, e.g. Each player should have six cards.

hard

► adjective

1. Firm; solid; the opposite of soft, e.g. This pillow is too hard! Wood is hard, grass is soft.
2. Difficult to understand or do, e.g. This homework is too hard! He is hard of hearing.

► adverb

- With force or effort, e.g. He hit the ball hard; It was raining hard; Don't knock too hard on the door, you will hurt your hand.

yard

► noun

1. A unit of measurement, 1 yard = 0.91meters, e.g. Our veranda is 4 yards long.
2. Space surrounding a building or a house, e.g. Our house has a small front yard; The children were playing in the backyard of the house; Come, lets sit in the yard.

park

► noun

- A green area with grass and trees made for pleasure, e.g. The children went to play in the park.

► verb (park, parking, past parked)

- To stop a car and leave it, e.g. She is parking the car; Please do not park here; We forgot where we parked the car.

▶ adjective

1. Without light or almost without light, e.g. It was dark night with no moon.
2. Not light in color, e.g. She has dark hair.

bark

▶ verb (bark, barking, past barked)

- The sound made by dogs, e.g. The dogs are barking; I wish that dog would stop barking; When we went to his house, his dog barked at us; If that dog is going to bark all night, none of us will be able to sleep.

lark

▶ noun

- A kind of small brown bird found in Europe, e.g. The lark was sitting in the tree.

mark

▶ verb (mark, marking, past marked)

1. To indicate; to show, e.g. Mark the page where you finished reading.
2. To give points or score, e.g. Our teacher will mark our exams.

▶ noun

1. A sign or indication, e.g. Grey hairs are a mark of old age
2. A score, number, e.g. I got a good mark on my exam.

market

▶ noun

1. A place where items are bought and sold, especially outdoors, e.g. She went to the village market; I am going to the vegetable market; Please go to the market and buy some oranges.

for ► preposition

1. In exchange for; in place of, e.g. This bicycle for Rs1000; I'll do this for you.
2. With the purpose of, e.g. He went for a walk; He left for London
4. Over a distance or time, e.g. He walked for one hour.
5. Because of, e.g. He went to prison for stealing a pen.

nor

► conjunction (used after neither)

- Also not, e.g. He has neither the time nor the energy to play; It will not rain, nor will it be cold.

sort

► verb (sort, sorting, past sorted)

- To divide things in different classes, orders, etc, e.g. Please sort the letters; We need to sort the kids by grade, then put them in different classes.

fort

► noun

- A building made so that it can be defended against attacks by enemies, e.g. Akbar built the Red fort at Agra.

cord

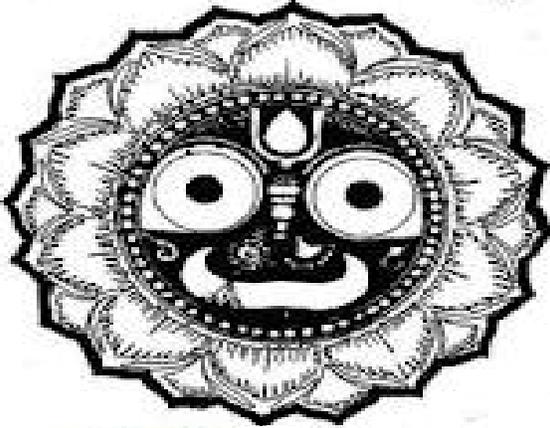

► noun

- A thick string, thin rope, e.g. Pull the cord to start the fan; Please tie the boxes with this cord.

ford

► noun

- A shallow place in a river where cars can cross, e.g. The truck is crossing the river at the ford.

lord

► noun

- Master; ruler; king; gentleman; God, e.g. Jagganath is the Lord of the universe; These men are the lords of banking; Sri Krishna is the lord of my heart.

fork

► noun

- A tool used for eating, e.g. In European countries, people eat with a knife and fork.

cork

► noun

1. A substance taken from some trees like cork oak e.g. Our kitchen floor is made of cork.

2. A piece of this substance used to put on top of bottle to close them, e.g. Please put the cork in the bottle to stop the gas from coming out.

worn (past participle of 'wear')

► Verb (wear, wearing, wore, past participle worn)

1. Past perfect (third form) of wear, e.g. He has worn this coat many times; These socks were worn by you yesterday.

► Adjective

2. Old, damaged from use, second hand, e.g. I have worn a holes in my boots by walking so far; I this shirt is old and worn; I don't want this worn out old coat;

born

► verb

- To come into the world, e.g. The baby was born at 10 am.

corn

► noun

- A grain, e.g. I like to eat corn-on-the-cob; Do you like pop corn?

torn (past tense of 'tear')

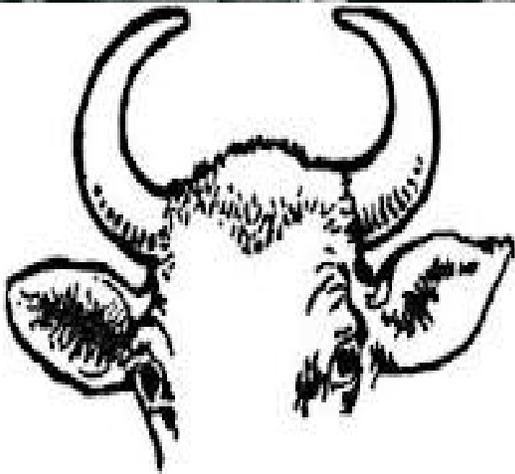

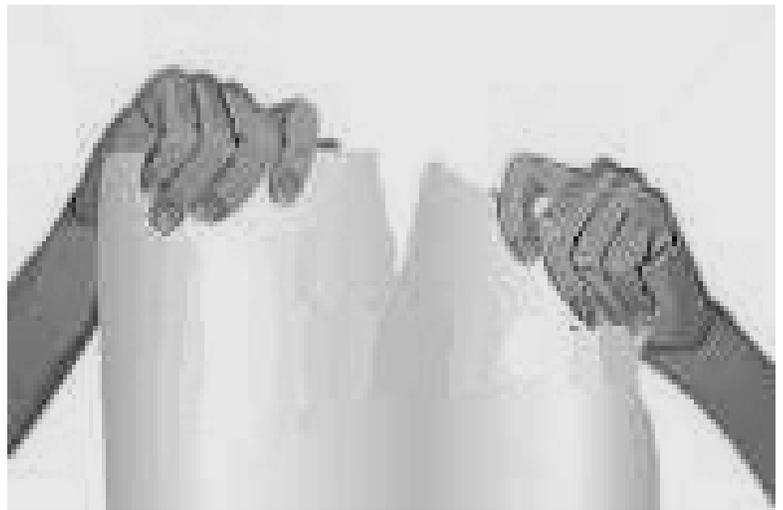

► verb (tear, tearing, past tore, past participle torn)

- e.g. He has torn my book; The children have torn up all the magazines; I saw him tearing the paper, now it is torn.

► noun

- Ripped, e.g. This photo is torn.

horn

► noun

1. The hard, pointed growth projecting from the head of some animals, e.g. This cow has big horns.
2. An instrument found in cars (etc) for making a warning noise, e.g. Please sound the horn when you arrive.

morning

► noun

- The early part of the day, until 12 o'clock, e.g. He came at 10 o'clock in the morning.

form

► noun

1. A document with blanks for the insertion of details or information, e.g. Please fill in this missing parcel form; All candidates must fill out the exam form.
2. Shape or appearance, e.g. The Vastasur demon came in the form of a calf but Krishna knew he was not a real cow.

urn

► noun

1. A decorative jar usually made of clay or metal, e.g. We put the urn with my father's ashes into the Yamuna river.
2. A container with a tap used for holding liquid, e.g. Please pour a glass of tea from the urn.

burn

► verb (burn, burning, past burned/ burnt)

- To damage or destroy by fire, e.g. He burned all the old letters;; His house burnt down in the fire; Come quickly, the dinner is burning; Don't turn the flame up too high, otherwise the rice will burn. The hot tea burnt my mouth; careful, this hot oil could burn you; This is a burn scar; He was admitted into the burns unit of the hospital.

turn

► noun

1. A place where it is possible to turn, e.g. Take the next right turn.
2. To do something before or after someone else, e.g. It is your turn to wash the dishes; Children, please take turns with the the cycle.

► verb (turn, turning, past turned)

1. The act of turning around, e.g. Turn right; Please turn around and look at the back of the class; Please turn your head to the side.
2. To cause to go around, e.g. Please turn the key; The wheels of a car turn quickly; Please turn the page.
3. To become, e.g. His face turned white. After his son died, he turned evil.

turnip

► noun

- A vegetable with a round root, similar to a potato, e.g. We are having turnip stew for dinner.

fur

► noun

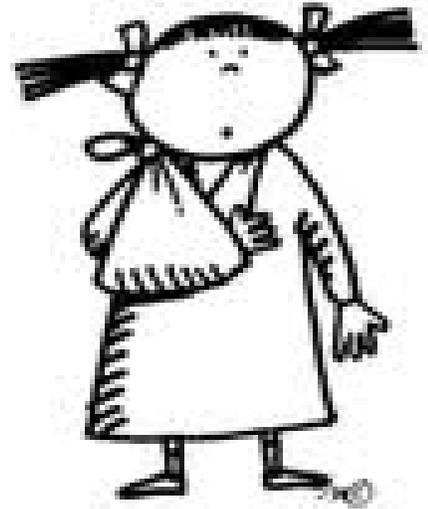

- The hair covering animals, also used to make clothes, e.g. The dog has so much fur the he cannot see properly; The dog's fur gets all over the house; I have a fur coat.

curl

► noun

- Hair that forms a circle, e.g. He has lots of curls in his hair.

hurt

► verb (hurt, hurting, past hurt)

- To injure, cause pain to, harm, e.g. She hurt her arm when she fell. My hand hurts! When you said that you are not my friend, it hurt me; Eat these vegetables, they will not hurt you.

burp

► noun

- A noise made by air released from the stomach through the mouth, especially after eating, e.g. Please cover your mouth when you burp.

surf

► noun

1. Waves of the sea as they reach the beach, e.g. There is a big surf today (big waves).
2. A sport where you catch waves standing on a board, e.g. He is going for a surf; He likes to surf at the beach.

► verb (surf, surfing, past surfed)

1. To participate in the sport of surfing, e.g. He is surfing on the waves; Watch me surf this wave.
2. To browse the internet, e.g. She is surfing the web.

curd

► noun

- (May refer to yogurt or cheese) A thick substance formed when milk becomes sour, e.g. Would you like some sugar in your curd?

